

CASCADE CHORALE ASSOCIATION

The Cascade Chorale Association (CCA) is a non-profit organization established in 2008. It provides financial and organization support to the Cascade Chorale, an entity of the Central Oregon Community College.

The Association is responsible for all Chorale expenses not covered in COCC's budget, including most concert expenses.

HOW DOES YOUR GIFT HELP?

CCA is extremely grateful to all of its supporters. We gladly give name recognition of our donors in the three annual concert programs each season. Your donation is tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law, and provides:

- A solid financial foundation for CCA;
- Free Winter and Spring concerts to the Central Oregon community;
- Financial assistance for concert costs;
- Compensation for musical accompaniment.

CASCADE CHORALE

Mission: To provide an opportunity for talented vocalists to sing together and prepare enriching, enjoyable and educational concerts for the community.

Cascade Chorale has been part of Central Oregon Community College for over 30 years, with Mr. James Knox as its Director since 2004. He is Professor of Music and Director of Choral Activities at COCC. Along with his wife, Heather, they founded the Bend Children's Choir in 2009. In addition to teaching music courses, he is sought after as a guest clinician locally and throughout the Northwest.

Under the leadership of our accompanist, Arloa Carvall, members of the Chorale present free, small ensemble concerts in the Bend and Redmond areas to senior living centers throughout the year.

HOLIDAY MAGIC

DON'T MISS OUT! Holiday Magic is Cascade Chorale's largest concert of the year with performances the first weekend in December at the Tower Theatre. Holiday Magic has come to signify the start of the holiday season at the Tower and has a growing loyal audience.

Mr. Knox is a master at creating an exceptionally entertaining evening filled with familiar holiday music along with many non-traditional pieces. There is something to satisfy everyone's holiday music desires at Holiday Magic!
